ANNA UNIVERSITY :: CHENNAI – 25

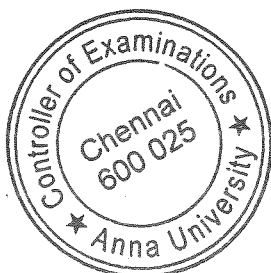

08-06-2021

NOTIFICATION

The Government of Tamil Nadu in its press notification dated 24.05.2021 had announced that the Re-examinations of November/December 2020 session and examinations of April/May 2021 would commence from 14.06.2021.

Due to COVID-19 pandemic, the state of Tamil Nadu is under lockdown from 7th June to 4.00AM of 14th June 2021, and Complete Lockdown continues in eleven districts. Such a lockdown in most of the districts and complete lockdown in the 11 districts will make it impossible for the students to buy examination stationery and visit the post office/courier office to dispatch the answer books. Considering these constraints and for the safety & welfare of the students, the Re-examinations of November/December 2020 session and examinations of April/May 2021 have been rescheduled and will now commence from 21.06.2021.

The schedule of examination is displayed in the official website of the Office of the Controller of Examinations. The students are advised to follow the same and adhere to the Instructions to the Students during the examinations.
